The FLASH

BRENTSVILLE DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL

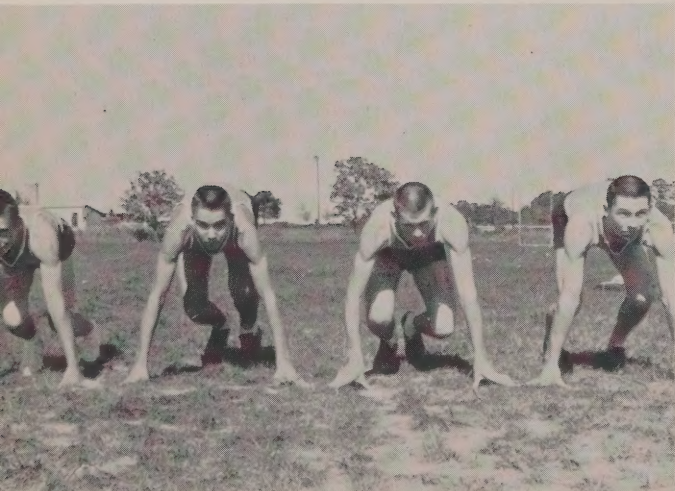

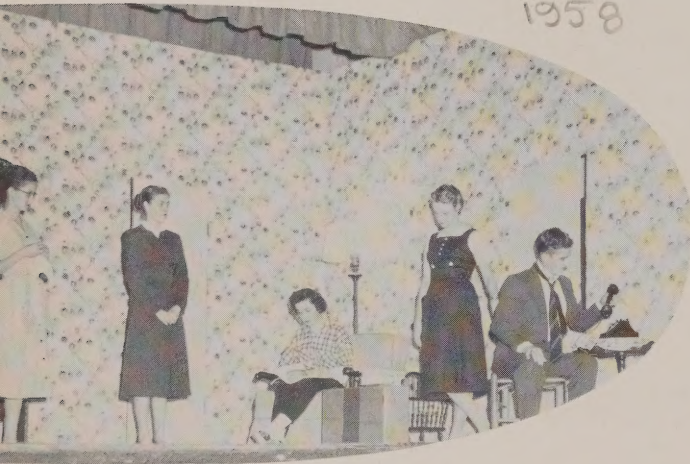

Nokesville, Virginia

As Fall yields to Winter, and she in turn gives way to Spring, so will our memories of B.D.H.S. gradually become more hazy and indistinct. It is the purpose of THE FLASH staff to produce a record of events around our calendar. When time has erased or blended our high-school years with the hurry, the cares, and the pleasures of life, we can turn to the pages of this book and find therein, a fluttering leaf, a shimmering snowflake, and a dampening shower symbolizing the activities, the fun, the hard work, and sometimes, the disappointments of our years at Brentsville District High School.

Dedication

In grateful recognition of his work for Brentsville District High School and in appreciation of the sympathetic understanding he has given the Senior Class, we dedicate this, THE 1958 FLASH, to Francis J. Daly. We trust that it will express in some measure our respect and admiration for his guidance, influence, and friendship.

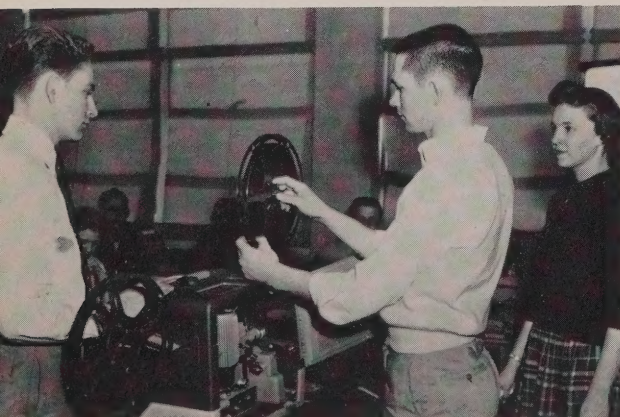

This picture will remain in the minds of all who attend B. D. H. S.

HONOR CREED

As a member of the Brentsville District High School I will do my best:

1. To be honest in thought, word and deed.
2. To show respect for school property and equipment.
3. To exercise respect for authority and school regulations.
4. To conduct myself in such a manner that I may be an asset to my school.
5. To be courteous, friendly and helpful to others.
6. To exercise good sportsmanship at home and away.
7. To practice habits of dependability and safety.
8. To make the most of opportunities through co-operation with the school program.

B.D.H.S. News-ettes

By Mildred Bolt

Forty-eight delegates of Prince William County S. C. A. assembled at Brentsville District High School on January 9, where they were welcomed by Principal D. C. Link. Miss Elizabeth Lloyd, Executive Secretary, spoke to the group in the morning on "Why An S. C. A." It was interesting to learn that the S. C. A. was first organized in the state with the purpose of getting an outdoor basketball court cleared. From such mere beginning it has become one of the student organizations in the state.

As an outgrowth of the discussion on the origin and purpose of the S. C. A., it was decided that Osbourn would publish a mimeographed history of the Federation movement in Prince William.

The next meeting of the Federation will be held at Osbourn High School February 23.

Seniors are now working on their annual; the next deadline is January 24.

The juniors are in the process of selecting their play, which will be given in the spring.

The juniors are doing a fine job of selling popcorn and hotdogs at the basketball games. Come out and cheer for your favorite team and help the juniors earn money for their prom.

Activities of the school are printed in the county newspaper.

Cross your fingers for Billy, Bert, and Pete; they're trying a new experiment.

Mary Wood knows each basket must count if Nokesville is to win.

The emblem contains words very dear to us the name of the school and the motto.

Lorraine Gilbert is giving Betty Lou Clayborn a few tips on sewing.

ALMA MATER

Hail to thee, our Nokesville High School,
Loyal, brave, and true,
We will sing our Alma Mater
And lift our hearts to you.

Onward, onward, ever faithful
True and loyal be
Like the mighty Bull Run Mountains,
Ever proud of thee.

As we tread her ivy protals,
Truth and faith arise,
We will lift our faces gently
Upward to the skies.

Maudine Clayborn is giving a speech about leadership which is being recorded by Warren Carter.

Around Our Community

Lunch time at D. G. S.

The students of Brentsville District High School come together from three outlying communities, Aden, Brentsville, and Greenwich. Each of these is rural with a small village in its center. The people of these areas are very much interested in the training of their children. They provide for them a small high school of about 150 students and a growing elementary school. One of their chief emphases in the community is the church. A few small businesses meet the needs of the farm population. Activities of the school and church provide recreation for the youth with a movie hall and bowling alley located in a nearby town. This is Nokesville, a place of retirement, rural quiet, and friendship.

Board of Education

Stuart M. Beville, Superintendent of Prince William County Schools, took office September 1, 1954. His sympathetic attitude and warm personality have won for him many friends in Prince William.

T. Clay Wood, local board member, presents awards at 1957 commencement exercises.

Principal

Mr. D. C. Link has been the Principal of Brentsville District High School since 1950. Under his leadership and guidance the school has continued to show growth in enrollment and in new facilities. He has gained the respect and high admiration of both the community and the school. The ability and leadership qualities possessed by Principal Link have made of the school a highly desirable institution of learning and personal growth.

The Student Cooperative Association at Brentsville District, even though it is small, is one of the oldest banner organizations in the state. We have been able to accomplish much because of the efforts of our sponsors and principals. Our present sponsor has worked with us for eleven years and has aided us in any way she possibly could.

Everyone in high school is automatically a member of the S.C.A. and has a chance of becoming an officer if he is capable of performing the task. All S.C.A. executive officers are members of the Student Council. Other members are committee chairmen and the presidents of all clubs. At the present time there are approximately 140 S.C.A. members, and Pete Herring is the presiding officer. He works with the sponsor and other officers to make the organization more effective.

Every year the S.C.A. sends delegates to the State Convention, the Youth Forum, the Northern Virginia District Meeting, and the County Federation, and for the first time this year, the Southern Association of Student Councils.

To keep the organization running smoothly, there are seven committees. They are designed to work out problems and present new ideas pertaining to the specific field they represent.

at January meeting

The County Federation was organized in 1947 with the purpose of fostering a spirit of cooperation and fellowship among the students of Prince William County. At that time only three schools were members: Osbourn, Garfield, and Nokesville. Later Quantico Post joined the Federation.

The organization does not undertake major projects but serves as a point of exchange for ideas and a background for discussion of the problems faced by the student councils of the county.

Three meetings are held each year with programs centering around themes such as: "Developing Citizenship through leadership training, through moral and spiritual values, and through building habits of safety," and "The S. C. A. of service to all".

A rotating system has been established for officers of the federation. In 1957, Brentsville District had the privilege of selecting the president, Sue Irvin; and the Secretary, Rebecca Earhart.

Each school is allowed five voting delegates. These people are known as Senators; one is chosen from each grade in high school. Each school has alternates who attend the meetings but do not have the right to vote.

The four schools alternate as host to the meetings. Brentsville District was the host school in January, 1958

The Girls' Basketball Team has made an excellent record. It has been a busy year with much enthusiasm and excitement culminating with eight wins out of ten games.

This is the third straight year the girls have had the honor of participating in the tournament. They entered the tournament the first two years in third place and this year with a tie for second place. In the tournament played February 28 and March 1, the team placed second.

Miss Hill's third grade waits impatiently to perform for royalty on May 8.

A flower strewn path for Queen Betty and King Bernard.

JANET YVONNE COLLIER, valedictorian of the class of 1958, has been an outstanding commercial student, president of the FHA, and editor of the school paper. Janet, with her quiet manner and winning smile, has been a hard-working member of the annual staff and a charming actress in the class plays. Tiny, neat, lovable, and efficient, she plans to become a secretary.

MARTHA SUE IRVIN, enthusiastic, forceful, and always busy, plays basketball with the same pep with which she heads the County Federation of S.C.A.'s, marches with the band or sings with the glee club. Attractive and persuasive, Sue is a natural leader with her ease in presiding and her good judgment. She has represented her school at All-State Glee Club, the Youth Forum, District S.C.A. Conventions, and the S.C.A. Workshop. Sue plans to enter Emory and Henry College in September.

Senior Leaders

PATRICIA ANN FOUNTAIN, good citizen of the class of 1958, has represented her school at federation, district, and state S.C.A. Conventions. A faithful and conscientious worker, she has served on the Student Council; and in 1958, she became chairman of the Exhibits Committee for the State Convention of S.C.A.'s at Radford College. As assistant editor of THE FLASH, she has readily accepted responsibility; on the other hand, as cheerleader, she has been quite a morale booster for the teams. Helpful and interested in others, Patty would like to enter the field of social service.

MARLYN FRANCES WILKINSON, Salutatorian of the class of 1958, has a variety of interests, chief among them being THE FLASH of which she has been editor. "Something new and different" has been her watchword in yearbook production. Coupled with her work on publications is a decided love for music and an intellectual curiosity. As a four-year member of the band and the glee club, she has served on the band council. Marlyn plans to enter Mary Baldwin in the fall.

PETER WAYNE HERRING, a most popular leader with a plus personality, has directed the activities of the S.C.A. as its president for two semesters. Interested in music and its composition, Pete plans to enter Shepherd College for further study. Though active in sports, assistant business manager of the yearbook, president of the Junior class, and member of the All-State Band, Pete still finds time for and enjoys social activities of the school and community.
